Summary

Blood pressure is the force applied by the blood over the inner walls of the arteries. Although the average blood pressure for a person remains constant, it shows minor fluctuations throughout the day—declining while relaxing and momentarily increasing while being excited or under stress. An increase in the resting blood pressure can scar, stiffen, or harden the arteries.

Blood pressure is written as systolic and diastolic values. Hence, BP 120/80 mm Hg means 120 is the systolic number, and 80 is the diastolic number.

Blood Pressure Category	Systolic mm Hg	Diastolic mm Hg
Low	<90	<50
Normal	<120	<80
Pre Hypertension	120 – 139	80 – 89
High Blood Pressure (Hypertension) Stage 1	140 – 159	90 – 99
High Blood Pressure (Hypertension) Stage 2	160 – 179	100 – 110
Hypertensive Crisis	>180	>110

In case the results are unexpected or alarming, the patient is advised to contact the lab immediately for possible remedial action.
